Presidents Message

I want to take this occasion to thank those in the club who stepped up to run for positions on the Council in 2015. We are also in need of members to volunteer to host the monthly meeting/potlucks and the monthly movie night. If you would like to volunteer for one of these function then please let either myself or Tom P know which date you want to host, what you are going to serve as the entrée or what movie you want to show.

The 2015 Council is as follows: President: Tom B.; Vice President: Steve S.; Treasurer: Bill W.; Secretary Larry K. Members at Large will be: Harry T, and Scott M. Tom P. will be Membership chair, and Webmaster; Jay P. will be hospitality; and Lukas I. will be the Newsletter Editor.

The flyer for the pig roast has been revised, and will be sent to all of the nearby chapters, with the new pricing schedule. We do conduct the pig roast as a fundraiser for the chapter; however, we do not want to lose money for the chapter. We will need volunteers to assist with pig roast. If you would like to help then please contact Steve S.

Since the Metro Parks are now charging to use their shelters, we are hoping to find members willing to host our summer time meetings at their home. There are typically around 30-35 attendees at those meetings. It costs $125.00 to use the MetroPark shelter each month for the summer. We have found a free facility at the Town & Country shopping center Community Room. And have reserved it for the first three months of 2015. It is convenient, and there is plenty of free parking in front of it.

Tom B.
